Jon Henry's Photography and Blog Post Instructions for Field Trip Consideration

Click this link to view the UCR/Arts/Museum of Photography flyer of Jon Henry's exhibition: <https://ucrarts.ucr.edu/exhibitions/jon-henry-stranger-fruit/>
Read the information at the bottom of the flyer.

There is a mention of "Pietàs". Do you know what this is a reference to? Do a Google search to find out what that means.

Visit Jon Henry's site, specifically his Stranger Fruit project:

Click on the first image and click "Next" to view every photo and every piece of text which helps to bring context to the images. Note: this site does not display properly on school devices. If you don't have a personal device, use the link below instead:

Back up site: Stranger Fruit – Photographs and text by Jon Henry | LensCulture

Do you know what the title of the project, "Stranger Fruit", refers to? Do a Google search of "Strange Fruit" to find out what that is.

Blog Post instructions: Create a blog post informing your audience about who Jon Henry is and what his Stranger Fruit photo project is about, include how Pietàs tie into his poses and what the title of his project refers to (include the lyrics). Add visuals and some of his photographic work to demonstrate what you talk about on your post.

Then add a statement as to why you are interested in attending this workshop.

Publish your post and EMAIL me the link: delasa@fUSD.net
